

THE DECORATIVE ARTS TRUST

For Immediate Release:

DECORATIVE ARTS TRUST ANNOUNCES 2025 FAILEY GRANTS

— Grants Support Exhibitions and Conservation at Seven Institutions —

Media, PA — The Decorative Arts Trust is pleased to announce the seven 2025 Dean F. Failey Grant recipients: the Birmingham Museum of Art in Birmingham, AL, for the Silver & Ceremony from Southern Asia, 1850–1910 exhibition; Historic Deerfield in Deerfield, MA, for the Body by Design: Fashionable Silhouettes exhibition; Honolulu Museum of Art in Honolulu, HI, for quilt conservation; the Museum of the American Revolution in Philadelphia, PA, for flag conservation; Strawbery Banke Museum in Portsmouth, NH, for Penhallow House wallpaper; Telfair Museums in Savannah, GA, for The Moss Mystique: Southern Women and Newcomb Pottery exhibition; and Wyck in Philadelphia, PA, for a Chinese desk conservation.

The Failey Grant program provides support for noteworthy exhibition and object-based conservation projects through the Dean F. Failey Fund, named in honor of the Trust's late Governor.

Failey Grant applications are due October 31 annually. For more information, visit decorativeartstrust.org/failey.

###

Contact: Matthew Thurlow, thetrust@decorativeartstrust.org, 610.627.4970

Lucknow Mughal Ewer with Makara Spout and Handle and Jungle Animal Motifs, c. 1900, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh, India. Cast and chased silver. Birmingham Museum of Art, Generous gift of Harish K. Patel, 2022.82.